

For Immediate Release

Contact Sharon Smith for Prevail, Inc; 317-506-7982 or ssmith@maverickpublicrelations.com

Prevail, Inc. hosts open house during National Crime Victims' Rights Week
*Open Your Hearts and We'll Open Our Doors

Noblesville, IN—March 24, 2010 — Prevail, Inc., a victim awareness and support program serving Hamilton County, will host an open house at their office located at 1100 South 9th Street, Suite 100, Noblesville, Thursday, April 22 from 4 - 7 p.m. The open house coincides with National Crime Victims' Awareness week, which is observed April 18 - 24, 2010.

Visitors from the business and residential community in Hamilton County are invited to meet Prevail staff, tour the facility, learn about Prevail programs and enjoy refreshments. Registration is not required and visitors can register to win a prize.

About Prevail, Inc.

Founded in 1986, Prevail is a dedicated and recognized model in the advocacy for crime victims by promoting community awareness through educational prevention programs and collaborative community partnerships. Programs and services are offered without discrimination against age, race, gender, creed, ethnicity, color, marital status, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability and are confidential, personalized and free-of-charge.

For more information on Prevail and its services, log on to www.prevailinc.com or contact Loretta Moore at (317) 773-6942 or Loretta@prevailinc.com.

# #