Prevail poster contest recognizes National Crime Victims' Rights Week
Grades K-5 and 6-12

Noblesville, IN—March 24, 2010 — Prevail, Inc., a victim awareness and support program serving Hamilton County, announced today it will host a poster contest for Hamilton County students in recognition of National Crime Victims' Rights Week, which is observed April 18 - 24, 2010. The poster should reflect this year's theme, "Crime Hurts, Community Helps."

Students should draw from their own perspectives:

- Why is it important to help people who have been hurt by crime?
- What does crime feel/look like?
- How does it feel to get help when you're hurt by someone else?
- Who can you turn to for help (community resources, counselors, police department, etc.)

Artwork will be displayed at Ben and Ari's, SR 37 N and 141st Street, Fishers, as well as at Prevail, Inc.'s Open House, which will be held Thursday, April 22nd, 2010 from 4 - 7 p.m. Prevail's office is located at 1100 South 9th Street, Suite 100, Noblesville, IN 46060.

Judging will be held at Ben & Ari's on April 19th at 5 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

The Grand Prize for each age group (grades K-5 and 6-12) will be a free birthday party for up to 10 people at Ben and Ari's. All who submit artwork will receive a "Certificate of Participation" and will be entered into a drawing for dinner and a limo ride (up to three hours) for themselves and up to six family members. Poster artwork (on white paper that is either sized 8 ½" X 11" or 17" X 22") should be dropped off or sent to Prevail no later than Wednesday, April 14th, 2010.
