

PREVAIL

Hero of the Month!

March 2019

The Hamilton County Reporter!

It is with great pleasure that we recognize the gentlemen behind the scenes at the Hamilton County Reporter as Prevail's Hero of the Month.

Jeff Jellison, Perry Williams, Stu Clampitt, and Isaac Taylor (not pictured) have been going above and beyond and covering the paper in Prevail's mission each month since last fall with no intention of stopping! Their passion and commitment to not only Prevail, but their community is inspiring to anyone who meets them.

We can not begin to thank them enough for the platform they have given Prevail to reach out to the public to continue to educate, engage, and inspire those around us. To give victims and survivors a voice and help bring awareness to the work that is being done to empower them each day.

They have selflessly given valuable print space to Prevail, time and time again. Colored their publication purple for Domestic Violence Awareness Month, shared story after story, picture after picture, and constantly ask how they can help share even more information with their readers.

We are in awe by the amount that they have given without question or hesitation. Make sure you are signed up at www.readthereporter.com!

Thank you Hamilton County Reporter!
You are ALL Our Heroes!!
