

PREVAIL

Hero of the Month!

October 2020
Jamie Davidson!

Prevail is truly excited to name Jamie Davidson as our hero of the month for October.

Jamie was introduced to Prevail several years ago and his passion to serve our clients was evident from the start. His momentum has never waned.

Jamie Davidson serves as the Financial Literacy Program Manager at Financial Center. He provides support, workshops, education, and more to those that want to improve the quality of their lives. Not only does he provide these empowering skills at Financial Center, he has shared his talents at Prevail in many ways. Jamie has been a guest presenter in Prevail's support groups. He participates and is a sponsor at the annual Self-Sufficiency Resource Event and has served as a referral for many clients. Moreover, Jamie happily meets our clients outside of Prevail to share his wisdom in helping them build credit and learn to budget. In fact, he was able to assist a client in making a connection that ultimately saved them from losing their home.

Jamie is a valuable resource and friend to Prevail.

It is an honor to call him a Prevail hero.

Thank you Jamie! You are our hero!
